Refer to L. J. Higby, Thomas P. Williams, and Kellogg, Strong & Co., Milwaukee.

THE undersigned would respectfully solicit the attention of dealers in and consumers of Coal in Milwaukee to our Card as above. The Bolivar Coal is unquestionably superior to any other mined in Ohio, for Grate, Blacksmithing, Machinery, or Domestic purposes; and for Steam purposes, is superior to any except Briar Hill. It is peculiarly well adapted to Shipping, as its extreme hardness renders it capable of bearing any amount of handling, without waste. It can be afforded considerably cheaper than Brier Hill, and for most purposes, is better.

It is our wish to introduce the article, and we respectfully solicit orders, confident that a trial is only necessary to convince any of the truth of the above assertion.

The proprietors of the Eckford Line would particularly call the attention of the Merchants of Wisconsin, Illinois, and other Western and South-western States to the superior facilities of their line for transportation to, and from, the ports on the Upper Lakes. The above line of Steamboats runs direct to our Dock, at Buffalo, and all goods contracted by this line for the Upper Lakes will be shipped (unless otherwise ordered or contracted) by steamboats, (not Propellers) with but one, or possibly two exceptions. The Eckford is the only Line not interested in, or committed to a Propeller Upper Lake Line; and in endeavoring to sustain a line of Steamboats on that route, the Proprietors hope to receive the support and patronage of the Merchants of the Western States, when interest demands the continuance of a line of such a class of Boats. Boats leave New York and Buffalo daily.

THE SUBSCRIBER PLACED HIS FIRE AND BURGLAR-Proof Iron Safe in competition with the whole world at the great Exhibition in London, for which an impartial Jury awarded a medal.

The American Fair, held last fall at Castle Garden, also awarded to him a gold medal for the best Fire-Proof Safe, and he has never failed to obtain the highest premium when his Safe has been put in competition with others for that purpose. Certificates have been received from the following well-known mercantile houses, who have had their books, papers and money preserved in those superior Safes within the last thirty days, (and can, with many others, be seen at my store,) viz. Messrs. Stillwell & Montross, and Mr. J. L. Watkins, in the Fulton Street fire; Messrs. Fisher & Robinson, and Messrs. John Lockwood & Co., in the great fire corner of Liberty and Nassau Streets, and Messrs. Proud & Bowman, in Jersey City.

I am the proprietor of HALL'S PATENT LOCK, which obtained a medal (in the name of Adams & Co., Boston,) at the World's Exhibition, and is considered the best Lock for the price, ever invented, being proof against powder, and the Key is no larger than a cent, and can be made changeable.

I invite all purchasers to a close and careful investigation before purchasing, and decide for themselves, who makes the best Fire, Burglar and Damp-Proof safes combined.

CHARLES DICKENS.

CHAPTER XV—BELL YARD.

Concluded.

"It was a thing to look at. The three children close together, and two of them relying solely on the third, and the third so young and yet with an air of age and steadiness that sat so strangely on the childish figure.

"Charley, Charley!" said my Guardian. "How old are you?"

"Over thirteen, sir," replied the child.

"O! What a great age," said my Guardian. "What a great age, Charley!"

I can not describe the tenderness with which he spoke to her; half playfully, yet all the more compassionately and mournfully.

"And do you live alone here with these babies, Charley?" said my Guardian.

"Yes, sir," returned the child, looking up into his face with perfect confidence, "since father died."

"And how do you live, Charley? O! Charley," said my Guardian, turning his face away for a moment, "how do you live?"

"Since father died, sir, I've gone out to work. I'm out washing to-day."

"God help you, Charley!" said my Guardian. "You're not tall enough to reach the tub!"

"In pattens I am, sir," she said quickly. "I've got a high pair as belonged to mother."

"And when did mother die? Poor mother!"

"Mother died, just after Emma was born," said the child, glancing at the face upon her bosom. "Then, father said I was to be as good a mother to her as I could. And so I tried. And so I worked at home, and did cleaning and nursing and washing, for a long time before I began to go out. And that's how I know how; don't you see, sir?"

"And do you often go out?"

"As often as I can," said Charley, opening her eyes, and smiling, "because of earning sixpences and shillings!"

"And do you always lock the babies up when you go out?"

"To keep 'em safe, sir, don't you see?" said Charley. "Mrs. Blinder comes up now and then, and Mr. Gridley comes up sometimes, and perhaps I can run in sometimes, and they can play, you know, and Tom ain't afraid of being locked up, are you, Tom?"

"No-o!" said Tom, stoutly.

"When it comes on dark, the lamps are lighted down in the court, and they show up here quite bright. Don't they Tom?"

"Yes, Charley," said Tom, "almost quite bright."

"Then he's as good as gold," said the little creature—O! in such a motherly, womanly way! "And when Emma's tired, he puts her to bed.— And when he's tired, he goes to bed himself.— And when I come home and light the candle, and has a bit of supper, he sits up again and has it with me. Don't you, Tom?"

"O yes, Charley!" said Tom. "That I do!" And either in this glimpse of the great pleasure of his life, or in gratitude and love for Charley, who was all in all to him, he laid his face among the scanty folds of her frock, and passed from laughing into crying.

It was the first time since our entry that a tear had been shed among these children. The little orphan girl had spoken of their father, and their mother, as if all that sorrow were subdued by the necessity of taking courage, and by their childish importance in being able to work, and by her bustling busy way. But, now, when Tom cried, although she sat quite tranquil, looking quietly at us, and did not by any movement disturb a hair of the head of any of her little charges, I saw two silent tears fall down her face.

I stood at the window with Ada, pretending to look at the housetops, and the blackened stacks of chimneys, and the poor plants, and the birds in little cages belonging to the neighbors, when I found that Mrs. Blinder, from the shop below, had come in (perhaps it had taken her all this time to get up stairs) and was talking to my Guardian.

"It's not much to forgive 'em the rent, sir," she said; "who could take it from them!"

"Well, well!" said my Guardian to us two. "It is enough that the time will come when this good woman will find that it was much, and that forasmuch as she did it unto the the least of these——! This child," he added, after a few moments, "could she possibly continue this?"

"Really, sir, I think she might," said Mrs. Blinder, getting her heavy breath by painful degrees. "She's as handy as it's possible to be. Bless you, sir, the way she tended them two children, after the mother died, was the talk of the yard! And it was a wonder to see her with him after he was took ill, it really was! 'Mrs. Blinder,' he said to me the very last he spoke—he was lying there—'Mrs. Blinder, whatever my calling may have been, I see a Angel sitting in the room last night along with my child, and trust her to Our Father!'"

"He had no other calling?" said my Guardian.

"No, sir," returned Mrs. Blinder, "he was nothing but a follerer. When he first came to lodge here, I didn't know what he was, and I confess that when I found out I gave him notice. It wasn't liked in the yard. It wasn't approved by the other lodgers. It is not a genteel calling," said Mrs. Blinder, "and most people do object to it. Mr. Gridley objected to it, very strong; and he is a good lodger, though his temper had been hard tried."

"So you gave him notice?" said my Guardian.

"So I gave him notice," said Mrs. Blinder.— "But really when the time came, and I knew no other ill of him, I was in doubts. He was punctual and diligent; he did what he had to do, sir," said Mrs. Blinder, unconsciously fixing Mr. Skimpole with her eye; "and it's something, in this world, even to do that."

"So you kept him after all?"

"Why, I said that if he could arrange it with Mr. Gridley, I could arrange it with the other lodgers, and should not so much mind its being liked or disliked in the yard. Mr. Gridley gave his consent gruff—but gave it. He was always gruff with him, but he has been kind to the children since. A person is never known till a person is proved."

"Have any people been kind to the children?" asked Mr. Jarndyce.

"Upon the whole, not so bad, sir," said Mrs. Blinder, "but, certainly not so many as would have been, if their father's calling had been different. Mr. Coavins gave a guinea, and the followers made up a little purse. Some neighbors in the yard, that had always joked and tapped their shoulders when he went by, came forward with a little subscription, and—in general—not so bad. Similarly with Charlotte. Some people won't employ her, because she was a follerer's child; some people that do employ her, cast it at her; some make a merit of having her to work for them, with that and all her drawbacks upon her; and perhaps pay her less and put upon her more. But she's patienter than others would be, and is clever, too, and always willing, up to the full mark of her strength and over. So I should say, in general, not so bad, sir, but might be better."

Mrs. Blinder sat down to give herself a more favorable opportunity of recovering her breath, exhausted anew by so much talking before it was fully restored. Mr. Jarndyce was turning to speak to us, when his attention was attracted by the abrupt entrance into the room of the Mr. Gridley who had been mentioned, and whom we had seen on our way up.

"I don't know what you may be doing here, ladies and gentlemen," he said, as if he resented our presence, "but you'll excuse my coming in. I don't come in, to stare about me. Well, Tom! Well, little one! How is it with us all to-day?"

He bent over the group in a caressing way, and clearly was regarded as a friend by the children, though his face retained its stern character, and his manner to us was as rude as it could be. My Guardian noticed it, and respected it.

"No one, surely, would come here to stare about him," he said mildly.

"May be so, sir, may be so," returned the other, taking Tom upon his knee, and waving him off impatiently. "I don't want to argue with ladies and gentlemen. I have had enough of arguing to last one man his life."

"You have sufficient reason, I dare say," said Mr. Jarndyce, "for being chafed and irritated—"

"There again!" exclaimed the man, becoming violently angry. "I am of a quarrelsome temper, I am irascible. I am not polite!"

"Not very, I think."

"Sir," said Gridley, putting down the child, and going up to him as if he meant to strike him.— "Do you know anything of Courts of Equity?"

"Perhaps I do, to my sorrow."

"To your sorrow?" said the man pausing in his wrath. "If so, I beg your pardon. I am not polite, I know. I beg your pardon! Sir," with renewed violence, "I have been dragged for five-and twenty years over burning iron, and have lost the habit of treading upon velvet. Go into the Court of Chancery yonder, and ask what is one of the standing jokes that brighten up their business sometimes, and they will tell you that the best they have, is the man from Shropshire. I," he said, beating one hand on the other passionately, "am the man from Shropshire."

"I believe, I and my family have also had the honor furnishing some entertainment in the same grave place," said my Guardian, composedly.— "You have heard my name—Jarndyce."

"Mr. Jarndyce," said Gridley, with a rough sort of salutation, "you bear your wrong more quietly than I can bear mine. More than that, I tell you —and I tell this gentleman, and these young ladies, if they are friends of yours—that if I took my wrongs in any other way, I should be driven mad! It is only by resenting them, and by revenging them in my mind, and by angrily demanding the justice I never get, that I am able to keep my wits together. It is only that!" he said, speaking in a homely, rustic way, and with great vehemence. "You may tell me that I overexcite myself. I answer that it's in my nature to do it, under wrong, and I must do it. There's nothing between doing it, and sinking into the smiling state of the poor little mad woman that haunts the Court. If I was once to sit down under it I should become imbecile."

The passion and heat in which he was, and the manner in which his face worked, and the violent gestures with which he accompanied what he said, were most painful to see.

"Mr. Jarndyce," he said, "consider my case.— I am one of two brothers. My Father (a farmer) made a will, and left his farm and stock and so forth, to my mother, for her life. After my mother's death all was to come to me, except a legacy of three hundred pounds that I was then to pay my brother. My mother died; my brother, sometime afterward, claimed his legacy. I, and some of my relations, said that he had had a part of it already, in board and lodging, and some other things. Now, mind! That was the question, and nothing else. No one disputed the will; no one disputed anything but whether part of that three hundred pounds had been already paid or not. To settle that question, my brother filing a bill, I was obliged to go into that accursed Chancery: I was forced there because the law forced me, and would let me go nowhere else.— Seventeen people were made defendants to that simple suit! It first came on, after two years.— It was then stopped for another two years, while the Master (may his head rot off!) inquired whether I was my father's son—about which there was no dispute at all with any mortal creature.— He then found out that there were not enough of defendants—remember, there were only seventeen as yet!—but that we must have another who had been left out; and must begin all over again.— The costs at that time—before the thing was begun!—were three times the legacy. My brother would have given up the legacy, and joyful, to escape more costs. My whole estate, left to me in that will of my father's, has gone in costs. The suit, still undecided, has fallen into rack, and ruin, and despair, with everything else—and here I stand this day! Now, Mr. Jarndyce, in your suit there are thousands involved where in mine there are hundreds. Is mine less hard to bear, or is it harder to bear, when my whole living was in it and has been shamefully sucked away?"

Mr. Jarndyce said that he condoled with him with all his heart, and that he set up no monopoly, himself, in being unjustly treated by his monstrous system.

"There again!" said Mr. Gridley, with no diminution of his rage. "The system! I am told on all hands it's the system. I mustn't look to individuals. It's the system. I mustn't go into Court, and say, "My Lord, I beg to know this from you—is this right or wrong? Have you the face to tell me I have received justice, and therefore am dismissed?" My lord knows nothing of it. He sits there to administer the system. I mustn't go to Mr. Tulkinghorn, the solicitor in Lincoln's Inn Fields, and say to him when he makes me furious, by being so cool and satisfied —as they all do; for I know they gain by it while I lose, don't I? I mustn't say to him I will have something out of some one for my ruin, by fair means or foul! He is not responsible. It's the system. But, if I do no violence to any of them, here—I may! I don't know what may happen if I am carried beyond myself at last! I will accuse the individual workers of that system against me, face to face, before the great eternal bar!"

His passion was fearful. I could not have believed in such rage without seeing it.

"I have done!" he said, sitting down and wiping his face. "Mr. Jarndyce, I have done! I am violent, I know. I ought to know it. I have been in prison for contempt of court. I have been in prison for threatening the solicitor. I have been in this trouble, and that trouble, and shall be again. I am the man from Shropshire, and I sometimes go beyond amusing—though they have found it amusing, too, to see me committed into custody, and brought up in custody, and all that. It would be better for me, they tell me, if I restrained myself. I tell them, that if I did restrain myself, I should become imbecile. I was a good-enough-tempered man once, I believe. People in my part of the country, say, they remember me so; but now, I must have this vent under my sense of injury, or nothing could hold my wits together. "It would be far better for you, Mr. Gridley,' the Lord Chancellor told me last week, 'not to waste your time here, and to stay, usefully employed, down in Shropshire.' 'My Lord, my Lord, I know it would,' said I to him, 'and it would have been better for me never to have heard the name of your high office; but, unhappily for me, I can't undo the past, and the past drives me here!'— Besides" he added, breaking fiercely out, "I'll shame them. To the last, I'll show myself in that court to its shame. If I knew when I was going to die, and could be carried there, and had a voice to speak with, I would die there, saying, 'You have brought me here, and sent me from here, many and many a time. Now send me out, feet foremost!'"

His countenance had, perhaps for years, become so set in its contentious expression, that it did not soften, even now, when he was quiet.

"I came to take these babies down to my room for an hour," he said, going to them, "and let them play about. I didn't mean to say all this, but it don't much signify. You're not afraid of me, Tom; are you?"

"No!" said Tom. "You ain't angry with me."

"You are right, my child. You're going back: Charley? Ay? Come then, little one!" He took the youngest child on his arm, where she was willing enough to be carried. "I shouldn't wonder if we found a gingerbread soldier down stairs. Let's go and look for him!"

He made his former rough salutation, which was not deficient in a certain respect, to Mr. Jarndyce; and bowing slightly to us, went down stairs to his room.

Upon that, Mr. Skimpole began to talk, for the first time since our arrival, in his usual gay strain. He said, Well, it was really very pleasant to see how things lazily adapted themselves to purposes. Here was this Mr. Gridley, a man of a robust will, and surprising energy—intellectually speaking, a sort of inharmonious blacksmith—and he could easily imagine that there Gridley was, years ago, wandering about in life for something to expend his superfluous combativeness upon—a sort of Young Love among the thorns—when the Court of Chancery came in his way, and accommodated him with the exact thing he wanted. There they were, matched, ever afterward! Otherwise he might have been a great general, blowing up all sorts of towns, or he might have been a great politician, dealing in all sorts of parliamentary rhetoric; but, as it was, he and the Court of Chancery had fallen upon each other in the pleasantest way, and nobody was much the worse, and Gridley was, so to speak, from that hour provided for. Then look at Coavinses! How delightfully poor Coavinses (father of these charming children) illustrated the same principles! He, Mr. Skimpole, himself, had sometimes repined at the existence of Coavinses. He had found Coavinses in his way. He could have dispensed with Coavinses. There had been times, when, if he had been a Sultan, and his Grand Vizier had said one morning, "What does the Commander of the Faithful require at the hands of his slave?" he might have even gone so far as to reply, "The head of Coavinses!" But what turned to be the case! That all that time, he had been giving employment to a most deserving man; that he had been a benefactor to Coavinses, that he had actually been enabling Coavinses to bring up these charming children in this agreeable way, developing these social virtues! Inasmuch that his heart had just now swelled, and the tears had come into his eyes, when he had looked round the room, and thought." "I was the great patron of Coavinses, and his little comforts were my work!"

There was something so captivating in his light way of touching these fantastic strings, and he was such a mirthful child by the side of the graver childhood we had seen, that he made my Guardian smile even as he turned toward us from a little private talk with Mrs. Blinder. We kissed Charley, and took her down stairs, with us, and stopped outside the house to see her run away to her work. I don't know where she was going, but we saw her run, such a little, little creature, in her womanly bonnet and apron, through a covered way to the bottom of the court; and melt into the city's strife and sound, like a dew drop in an ocean.

TO BE CONTINUED

THE GAG APPLIED.—Chas. Sumner asked of the Senate of the U. States, to take up a resolution introduced by himself involving expediency of the repeal of the fugitive slave law, which was refused by the following vote:

YEAS—Messrs. Clarke, Davis, Dodge, [Wis] Foote, Hamlin, Seward, Shields, Sumner, Upham, Wade, —10.

NAYS—Messrs. Borland, Brodhead, Brooke, Cass, Charlton, Clemens, DeSaussure, Dodge, [Iowa] Douglass, Downs, Fitch, Fish, Geyer, Gwinn, Hunter, King, Mallory, Mangum, Mason, Merriwether, Miller, Morton, Norris, Pearce, Pratt, Rusk, Sebastian, Smith, Spruce, Toucey, Weller—32.

It is instructive to remark that the name of Wm. R. King, the democratic nominee for Vice President, is among the number who refused to allow Sumner to speak, and it can't be doubted had Pierce been there his vote would have been on the same side, as no act of his life has been out of harmony with such a course. These are the men sustained by those who profess to love liberty; and with free speech thus crucified in the national capitol, partisan editors and office expectants will go on shouting hosannas to those who do it. The success of these men will be an endorsement by the people of this tyranny, and the beginning of the end of our republicanism.—Kenosha Telegraph.

FIVE HUNDRED AND SEVENTY-SIX REASONS FOR OPPOSING GEN. PIERCE.—Since the commencement of steamboat navigation in the West, there have been 576 boats sunk by snags and sawyers. Those the "Democratic" party think it is "unconstitutional" to remove. They are so economical as to prefer to destroy steamboats rather than snags, and to save expenses rather than life.—Alb. Eve. Journal.

Savannah, Aug. 3.

Great conflagration this afternoon—seventy houses burnt—loss $75,000 to $100,000. It swept everything from Hubby street north to Margaret, and south to Laurel, east of the canal. The houses were principally of wood. One hundred families houseless.

WANTED IMMEDIATELY,
A GOOD COMPOSITOR AT THIS OFFICE.

THE JUDICIAL CONVENTION.

The News of Saturday morning publishes, in detail, the proceedings of the Democratic State Judicial Convention, held at Madison last week. Some of the prominent features of the affair are worth reproducing and we make a brief summary, therefore, for the edification of our readers.— The day was occupied in the business of preliminary organization; settling disputed seats, selecting officers, &c., and it was not till evening that the balloting for candidates was commenced.— Previous to this, however, Mr. Ross of Dodge County, who aspires to be Judge LARRABEE's successor in the Circuit Court and was anxious, of course, to get him out of the way, offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That in case any Judge of any circuit shall be nominated by this Convention, it shall be conditional that he resign such Circuit Judgeship, immediately, if now in Madison, or if not in Madison, within five days after notice of such nomination, or he shall be deemed to have declined such nomination, and the Committee shall forthwith call a Convention to fill the vacancy, so occasioned, in the ticket to be nominated by this Convention.

This was adopted without much debate, or consideration, and immediately afterwards the game began. It was resolved to nominate the candidates for Associate Justices first, voting for both together.

The first ballot stood thus:

Samuel Crawford	42 votes.
A. D. Smith	35 "
James Knowlton	18 "
Morgan L. Martin	22 "
N. B. Eddy	14 "

A. G. Chatfield 8; "Scattering" 22. Mr. CRAWFORD having received a majority of all the votes cast, was declared duly nominated. Four or five ballots were next had without a choice.— Finally Mr. A. D. SMITH, of this city, carried off the second nomination by the following vote:— A. D. Smith 46, M. L. Martin 36, Scattering 6.

At this stage of the proceedings the name of Judge HUBBELL was withdrawn as a candidate for Chief Justice, in consequence of the resolution above quoted, which was aimed as well at him as at Judge LARRABEE. Judge HUBBELL was undoubtedly the strongest candidate before the Convention, for the nomination of Chief Justice, and had much the largest number of friends among the members. Upon his withdrawal, the prominent candidates remaining were M. L. MARTIN, of Green Bay, Mr. CHATFIELD of Kenosha and Judge LARABEE. It took four ballots to decide between them, as thus:

1st ballot.—A. G. Chatfield 16, M. L. Martin 25, C. H. Larabee 23, Scattering 20.

2d Ballot—M. L. Martin 28, C. H. Larabee 30, A. G. Chatfield 24, Scattering 5.

3d ballot—Martin 20, Larabee 31, Chatfield 36, Blank 1.

4th ballot—Larabee 46, Chatfield 41, Blank 2.

CHARLES H. LARRABEE having obtained just one more than a majority, was thereupon declared duly nominated as a candidate for the office of Chief Justice. Having accomplished this work and adopted the subjoined resolution, proposing to connect our Judicial elections a little more intimately with party organization and political contests, the Convention adjourned.

Resolved, That the Constitutional provision requiring a special election for Judges, has failed to accomplish the purpose for which it was intended, that its only effect so far has been to waste the time and add to the taxes of the already overburdened people, and implies a distrust in their virtue and intelligence. therefore we would respectfully suggest to the Democracy of Wisconsin to elect their Senators and Assemblymen, with a view to having said provision stricken out of the constitution, thereby saving to the people their time and money, it costing at least ten thousand dollars to defray the expense of each special election.

Thus much for the proceedings of the Convention. But there were some things said, as well as done, that merit a brief notice. While the Committee on Credentials were adjusting titles to disputed seats, the Convention was instructed and entertained by speeches from sundry prominent gentlemen. Mr. UPHAM, of this city, led off; expressing his opinion in favor of party nominations, but admitting that very many Democrats would "repudiate the behests of party if any but an unexceptionable ticket was nominated" and counselling the Convention, therefore, to put forward "its best men." Mr. HOBART of Sheboygan, a victim of "Independent nominations," followed in an earnest protest against these disorganizing inventions and pledged Sheboygan County for the ticket, "whoever were the nominees." Mr. JOHN DELANEY, of Columbia County, the next Speaker, came out strong for party nominations for all offices. "He thought that every judicial election in the State should be conducted on party principles." We rather wonder that Mr. DELANEY didn't insist that all suits at law should be decided in the same way! Mr. S. P. COON, of this city, late Attorney General, and a chance-delegate in the Convention, i. e. a substitute for Mr. BREED of Wauwatosa, made a speech which is thus sketched in the News:

He concurred with the other gentlemen on the subject of party nominations. If we have integrity enough, and ability enough in the Democratic party, we should make use of them, and select candidates who possess them from among ourselves. He did not think a whig could arrive at just conclusions on political subjects, and erring on those subjects he should be led to distrust his judgment on the bench. He believed the Democratic party had abundance of fit material for three judges at least. He thought that there hardly ever was a time, when more than the present, it was important that strict party men should be nominated and supported. Let us place such men in nomination —to whom we can point with pride—whose course has been always just and upright. He pledged his support to the nominees of the Convention and nobody else.

Mr. Coon's lucid idea, that because Whigs differ with him "on political subjects," therefore they should not be trusted on the Bench, is hardly worthy of so eminent a civilian. We don't think he would quite fancy his Whig clients taking away their business from him, because, disliking his "conclusions on political subjects," they "distrusted his judgment" at the Bar.

Mr. GEORGE B. SMITH, who followed Mr. Coon not only endorsed his opinions, but went a trifle farther. He thought, Mr. SMITH did, not only that no Whigs should be suffered upon the Supreme Court Bench, but that no Democrat should be tolerated there, who had ever swerved a hair from the straight party track! Hear him:

He thought the convention should nominate upright men and sound democrats—who had never swerved from the straight line of party duty, or their allegiance to democratic principles. If they nominated any other kind of a man he should be defeated.

This was a broadside, not only at renegade Whigs, but at democratic "bolters," whether in Judicial, or political, State, County, or Town elections—a "caution" to them not to get on the "regular" ticket, for they would surely be defeated, if they did.

Lastly, Mr. COTHREN of Mineral Point "responded heartily to the call for this Convention" and tho' not a delegate, gladly embraced the opportunity to declare that "this system of nominating "candidates was entirely in accordance with the "feelings and wishes of his constituents." Mr. COTHREN, being himself a party candidate for a Judicial Office, naturally favors this mode of doing business and would fain persuade himself that the People think as he does on the subject. We have an idea that the Judicial election next month will change Mr. COTHREN's opinion considerably. The Electors of Wisconsin will not sanction or sustain party nominations for Judicial Offices, however loudly and pertinaciously Messrs. HOBART, COON, SMITH & Co., many insist upon them as indispensable to the success of "democratic principles" and to the maintenance of "the purity of the Bench!"

The Lake Shore Rail Road.

We have received a copy of the first report of Mr. C. R. ALTON, Chief Engineer of the Green Bay, Milwaukee and Chicago Rail Road, presented to the Board of Directors on the 2d instant.— It relates to the preliminary survey of that portion of the line between this city and the Southern boundary of our State, and makes a very satisfactory exhibit of the cheapness and feasibility of the route. Mr. ALTON states the distance, from this city to the State line, to be 39¾ miles and to Chicago about 85 miles. Of the 39 miles to the State line, twelve and a quarter would be level, five and three quarters would have grades under 10 feet to the mile, thirteen and a half grades between 10 and 30 feet, and seven grades between 30 and 35 feet, the maximum. The route is almost perfectly straight; there being 35 miles of direct line, and but four of curved line. The estimated cost of the road, laid with a heavy T rail, from Milwaukee to the State line, is $551,579; being an average of $14,217 to the mile, and assuming this as a basis the entire cost of the road to Chicago (85 miles) with the necessary Locomotives, Cars, Depots and grounds, would be $1,208,505. It would be difficult to find a cheaper or better line anywhere.

As to the revenues of the proposed road, Mr. ALTON estimates that they will net 16¼ per cent on the cost; there being a population of nearly a quarter of a million that would be dependent upon and tributary to the road, and a fertile, well-settled and highly cultivated region of country to furnish it with produce for transportation. The fact, too, is noted, that the distance by this route from Fond du Lac to Chicago, will only be 145 miles, while by the R. R. Valley road, it will be 190 miles. Mr. ALTON has also made a rough estimate of the length and cost of the road, from this city northwardly to Green Bay, putting the distance down at 115 miles and the cost at $1,725,000. This would make the aggregate cost of the whole Lake Shore Rail Road (200 miles) about three millions of dollars. We think the estimate a fair one, and cannot doubt that a road, starting from Green Bay, passing through Depere, Manitowoc, Sheboygan, Port Washington, Milwaukee, Racine, Kenosha and Waukegan, and terminating at Chicago, would prove an excellent investment in a pecuniary point of view, as well as a most efficient Agent in developing the resources and promoting the growth and prosperity of the Eastern half of our State.

Harbor and River Improvements.

On Friday last, the House of Representatives passed the bill making appropriations for the improvement of certain Harbors and Rivers, by a vote of 103 to 75—a majority of 28. It passed substantially as reported to the House by the Hon. David L. Seymour, of this State, [democrat,] Chairman of the Committee on commerce.

This bill, unlike the one got up during Mr. Polk's Administration, is a fair one—a division of the public money to aid meritorious projects, and looking to the actual need of commerce and Navigation. The whole sum appropriated by it, is $1,550,000. Of this, the amount to be expended on the Northern and Western Lakes, is $492,000. The appropriation to Buffalo and Dunkirk, is $44,000.

It is a democratic measure—matured by democrats, reported by a democrat, and passed by the democratic majority in the House of Representatives. The concurrence of the Senate in its provisions, shuts the mouths of the Whigs, stops their clamor about Internal Improvements, and takes from them half their political capital for this Presidential campaign. Alas for Whiggery!—Buffalo Courier.

Just as we expected. We knew very well that our northwestern Loco Foco presses would claim the passage of this bill as a "democratic measure" —although their party platform is against it—although a majority of their members voted against it—and although their presses south-eastward insist that the wicked whigs passed the bill.

The bill is a "fair" one—except that it is small and mean in its amount of appropriations; it does aid "meritorious projects"—and those "looking to the actual needs of Commerce." And yet, out of about 140 Loco Foco votes in the House, it could get but 41 in its favor, while 64 voted against it! The vote in full stood—for the bill 61 whigs, 41 democrats; while against it were 11 whigs and 64 democrats; and yet, the Courier insists as above that the bill" is a democratic measure, and passed by the democratic majority in the House of Representatives!"

The people cannot be deceived by any such statements as the Courier makes. The record is before them.

N. B. Since writing the above, we find a more complete table of the vote upon the passage of the Harbor bill, and compile from it the following table of figures, showing the Ayes, Noes, Absentees, and total strength of each party in the House:

	Locos	Whigs	Free Soilers
AYES.	40	59	4
NOES.	62	13	0
ABSENT.	36	17	1
Total	138	89	5

Of the 4 Free Soil votes for the bill, Messrs. Giddings, Mann, and Tuck were whigs originally.

A Voter, in an able communication to-day, invites attention to the dictatorial assumption of the Sentinel in taking the nomination of judges into its own special charge.—Wisconsin.

"A Voter" and the sapient editor of the Wisconsin are both unnecessarily exercised. The Sentinel has not made, nor does it desire to make, any "nomination of Judges." It leaves that to THE PEOPLE, to whom it legitimately belongs, and not to packed conventions, party penny trumpets, or individual aspirants.

The communication of "A Voter" closes thus: "Let the voters of this State speak and choose for themselves."

That is precisely the recommendation of the Sentinel.

THE PROPOSED CONVENTION AT JANESVILLE.— A friend at Kenosha sends us the call for an Independent Judicial Convention at Janesville on the 25th, with a request that we will publish it. We will do so in our next; though, as we have already stated, we do not like the modus operandi. Our Kenosha correspondent adds that EDWARD V. WHITON for Chief Justice, and MAR. M. STRONG and CHAS. DUNN, for Associates, would be an acceptable ticket in that quarter.

Chippewa Club---Second Ward.

At an adjourned meeting of the Chippewa Club of the 2d Ward, held at Comstock's Hall, for the purpose of completing their organization, and for transacting such other business as might come before them, the meeting was called to order by the President, and S. B. LANGWORTHY appointed Secretary pro tem.

Committee on constitution for the Club reported one, which was adopted.

On motion of J. A. PHELPS, the officers elected at a previous meeting, were continued as permanent under the constitution adopted.

On motion, the Club proceeded to an election for a Finance committee and Marshal, as required by the constitution: whereupon A. J. LANGWORTHY, J. B. SELBY, J. A. PHELPS, GEO. ALBERT, and J. W. LISCOMB, were duly elected to constitute a committee of Finance. L. N. DEWEY was then unanimously declared Marshal.

The committee appointed to procure a meeting room reported and were discharged, and the duties of said committee transferred to Finance Committee.

On motion of A. J. Langworthy, the Secretary was instructed to procure a suitable book, and transcribe the constitution as adopted, and circulate it for the purpose of procuring signatures to the same.

On motion of J. A. Phelps, the regular meetings of the "Second Ward Chippewa Club," were appointed to be held on Friday evening of each week, and that the Secretary give notice through the Sentinel, of the time and place of holding each meeting.

On motion, the finance committee were instructed to procure one thousand handbills, printed in English and German, and that the same be posted throughout the streets on the day of meeting.

Here Mr. ORTON was loudly called for, who came forward and delivered himself in his usually felicitous and happy manner. He spoke about twenty minutes, and gave way to Mr. ROESLER, who enjoined earnestly upon the Club the necessity of a good and thorough organization. He spoke of the progress of the cause among his German fellow-citizens, and among the people generally, as encouraging in the greatest degree.

On motion of A. J. Langworthy, it was

Resolved, That the Club sign for 50 copies of Roesler's Campaign paper.

On motion, the proceedings of this meeting were ordered published in the Sentinel.

On motion, that we adjourn till next Friday evening, and that speakers be procured to address the meeting.

S. B. LANGWORTHY,
Secretary, pro tem.

Horticultural Society.

The regular monthly meeting of this Society was held on Saturday afternoon. Among other business items of interest transacted we notice the following:

An offer was made to the Society, on behalf of DAVID FERGUSON Esq., of 2 acres of land for the purpose of a garden, whereupon Messrs. Williams, Randall and Messenger were appointed a committee to examine the land, and to confer with the owner and anyother persons who may be inclined to make tenders of the kind for the purpose.

Mr. RANDALL offered the following resolutions, which were passed unanimously:

Resolved, That this Society has heard with great regret of the melancholy death of A. J. DOWNING, of Newburg, N. Y., whose cultivated taste and earnest zeal in all matters of horticulture and landscape gardening had placed him at the head of his profession, and conferred vast benefit upon the country.

Resolved, That the resolutions be published in the papers of this city, and a copy be forwarded to the family of the deceased.

The time of the next Exhibition was fixed at the TENTH OF SEPTEMBER, and the Executive Committee was directed to prepare and make public the premium list as soon as possible.

The following appointments of committees were made:

On Botany; Messrs. Lapham, Messenger, and Gilmore.

On Library; Messrs. Hislop, Randall, and Reed.

On Entomology; Messrs. Setcomb, Fuller, and Weeks.

On Synonyms; Messrs. Messenger, Hawley, and Gifford.

On Plants and Flowers; Messrs. Messenger, Quentin, Hurd.

For the Sentinel.

Messrs. Editors:—

I would like to call the attention of the charitable public to the case of Mrs. Constable, a widow lady over 60 years of age, who, with her invalid daughter, are destitute of any regular means of support.

The health of both mother and daughter has been destroyed by hardship and suffering and they wish to obtain means of support while here and enough to enable them to return and spend their few, very few, remaining days in their old eastern home. They reside four doors south of the Catholic Church, 2d street, 4th Ward.

BODY FOUND.—A box, containing a dead body, was found partly buried in the sand on Thursday, on the beach near the South Pier. It proved to be that of a Norwegian, who died on board the Arctic, and who was buried there by the man who was directed to take it to the cemetery.

☞ The Concert of Messrs. SIMON and BONE, on Friday evening, tho' but indifferently attended was an excellent entertainment, equal, indeed, in quality, to any that we have had this year. Mr. SIMON's Violin-playing and Mr. BONE's piano were performances of rare merit.

A Common Sense Letter.

The plain "common sense" writer of the letter from which we extract the following, hits the nail on the head. Just now, after some years of poor crops, our farmers are gathering in a bountiful harvest, the quality of grain being superior to any heretofore grown in the state; but prices are miserably low, owing to the want of a home market. We cannot wonder at the language of the letter:

"Where has the American farmer a market for his surplus produce? Except for cotton, he has neither a foreign, or a home market. Does this not clearly prove, when there is no market at home or abroad, that there is too much labor employed in agriculture? Common sense at once points out the remedy; take from agriculture in the United States six hundred thousand men, women, and children, and you will at once give a market for more breadstuffs than all Europe now furnishes us with.

In short, we have been too long subject to the policy of British merchants. It is time we should become a little more Americanized, and, instead of feeding paupers and laborers of England, feed our own; or else, in a short time, by continuing our present policy, we shall be paupers ourselves."

AN OLD DEMOCRAT.

Now is not that good doctrine, gentlemen of the Morning News, Baraboo Standard, and other papers, who are lately much exercised on account of our advocacy of protective duties. Isn't it the doctrine for our Western farmers? Many of them think so, we can assure you.

NEW LAND OFFICE.—A bill has passed the House for the establishment of two new Land Offices in Wisconsin—one at Steven's Point and another at La Crosse. The bill has also passed the Senate.

We find the above paragraph in Saturday mornings Chicago Tribune, but think the announcement of the Senate's action on the bill premature, at least.

A PITY.—According to the News, the N. Y. Journal of Commerce, a free trade paper in that city, thinks the Whigs "made a great mistake" in selecting Gen. Scott as a candidate.

Singularly enough, the London Times thinks so too.

A HEALTHY PLACE.—The total number of interments in the Cemetery at Beloit for the three months ending July 31st., was only 9, of which 6 were children.

2D WARD CHIPPEWA CLUB.—The Scott Club of the 2d Ward had a good meeting on Friday evening. The attendance was large and the feeling manifested was most encouraging. They were addressed by M. H. ORTON, Esq., one of the State Electors, with excellent effect, Many German friends of Gen. Scott were present. Among them were several from Washington County, who stated that in their neighborhood there were a large number of Germans who were bound to go for Scott and Graham, and that all that is wanting to secure a heavy vote among them is the circulation of the documents.

The 2d Ward means to have that banner.

WASHINGTON COUNTY.—The democracy of Washington County have recommended D. W. MAXON as a suitable candidate for Congress in the Northern District. This is an empty compliment. Mr. MAXON "can't come in." The party managers have already awarded this nomination to JOHN B. MACY of Fond du Lac, and rely upon Washington County to elect him.

SIGNS IN MICHIGAN.—The Detroit Tribune says that in a Scott Club formed not 20 miles from that city, are already enrolled 13 "democrats."

In another club which sent in for Campaign papers, there are enlisted no less than 16 who have heretofore worked with the "democracy."

"The Chippewa ball is rolling on."

HEALTH OF ROCHESTER.—The Rochester Democrat of Thursday last, the 5th inst., says that the cholera, which has been quite fatal there for a week, was gradually disappearing, and expresses the hope that with settled weather the public health will soon be restored

Wheat—130 bushels spring from railroad, at 44c; also 200 bushels new winter, from canal, taken for milling, at 60½c.

Corn—350 bushels, in lots, at 46@47c per bushel of 60 lbs. 350 do in lots at 47¼c per bushel of 60 lbs. also 260 bu afloat at 44½c.

Oswego, Aug. 4.—The produce market is without animation. The sales of flour are confined to the city trade at rates within the range of our quotations. There is fair inquiry in the grain market, with occasional sales, but parties refuse to make public any transactions in wheat.

The shipments of salt are large and prices well sustained. Sales yesterday of 3600 bbls. at 109c for fine.

Rochester, Aug. 4.—New Wheat has just begun to appear in this market, and prices are not yet fixed.

Very little has been done in wheat for some days. Prices are nominally for Genesee 93@96c; Western 86c.

WORTHY OF ALL CONFIDENCE.

DR. STORM'S CELEBRATED SCOTCH COUGH CANDY.—No medicine ever invented has gained more popularity than this, nor is there any more deserving of it. There are so few compounds worthy the high merit claimed for them, that when one which is really destined to benefit the afflicted is put forth, we are slow to believe our most intimate friends, when they praise it. But Storm's Scotch Cough Candy is sold at a price so low, it must be evident to all that if it did not sustain a good reputation, enough would not be sold to pay for advertising. Almost every person that uses this article according to direction will feel justified in recommending it to others, it needs but a small outlay of money and time to satisfy the most sceptical that it is worthy of all confidence as a remedy in diseases of the Chest and Lungs.

Price, One Dime per Roll; 3 Rolls for 25 Cents; or $1 per Doz.

A handsome engraving of the Scottish Coat of Arms, and the written signature of Hamilton Wade, (proprietor,) is on the outside wrapper of each roll or package.

☞ Hundreds of our citizens complain of debility and languor of the system, derangement of the liver and stomach, want of appetite, &c.; they are frequently the result of too close application, and a thousand other causes we cannot here name; but we would say to all so afflicted, Go as we have done—get a bottle or two of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. Jackson, and, our word for it, you will be cured. We recommend this medicine knowing from experience that it is much superior to the generality of patent medicines. We would say to our readers, purchase none unless prepared by Dr. C. M. BATTLE OF HERRMANNSTADT.

THE BATTLE OF HERRMANNSTADT, in Transylvania, where the Hungarians, on the 11th of March, 1849, under General Bem, defeated the united armies of Russia and Austria, and took the fortified city of Herrmannstadt by storm, was one of the most brilliant military actions of the Hungarian war of independence, and one of the most momentous with respect to its strategical and political results, showing Bem's military genius in its highest lustre. The Picture of that battle was sketched by Capt. Schwiefele of the Hungarian Army, an eye witness, and Lithographed by Schaerff & Bros. of St. Louis.

The natural scenery of the battle-field, the respective positions of both parties, and even the countenances and features of the principal persons acting in that exciting drama, are represented with the utmost accuracy and truth; and the Picture will, with regard to its artistical execution, answer the claims of the most scrupulous judge of art, and be an ornament to every parlor or public hall, being a valuable keepsake of a glorious period in history.

A Pamphlet, explanatory of the Battle, containing also a short narrative of the political causes of the Hungarian Revolution, and an account of the military events in Transylvania previous to the battle represented, is adjoined, free of charge, to every copy.

Copies sold at ONE DOLLAR each, by the undersigned, at Mr. Wettstein's German House, Market Square.

THE TRIBUNE.

SCOTT Leads the Column!—Forward!

"Now, brothers, now is the hour!"

THE publishers of THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE proffer copies of their regular and full Weekly issue (eight large pages, each six columns, of Literature, Politics and News) for the remainder of the Presidential Campaign, commencing with the 7th of August and closing with Nov. 25th, when we confidently hope to announce their triumph,—on the following terms:—

1 copy for the 15 weeks $0 37½
5 copies to one address 2 00
10 copies do do 3 00
25 copies do do 7 50

Payment in all cases to accompany the order.

The selection of WINFIELD SCOTT for President and WILLIAM A. GRAHAM for Vice-President, has gratified our ardent wishes and strengthened our earnest hopes. Our conviction has long been fixed that Gen. SCOTT is the very man fitted and marked out by his heroic achievements—his inestimable services, at critical periods, in preserving our National tranquillity and preventing the effusion of blood—by his unquestioned integrity, his self-devoted patriotism, his unsectional position and his humanity—to unite the Whig Masses in one enthusiastic, invincible host and lead them on to victory. So believing, we have labored and hoped for his nomination, and we now confidently look to the result to justify our sanguine anticipations.

THE TRIBUNE, standing on its own Platform and knowing no other authority but truth, will do its utmost for the election of SCOTT and GRAHAM; but it will not be absorbed by Political discussion. We have chosen to proffer Campaign subscribers a large sheet, rather than a small and cheaper one, because the postage is the same, and because we wish to extend the knowledge of what THE TRIBUNE habitually is. The letters of our Associate, BAYARD TAYLOR, who next writes us from Syria, the ruins of Nineveh, Constantinople, &c., will appear every week, with reviews of new Books, Proceedings of Congress and the general Foreign and Domestic News of the Day. If there is another journal in America more valuable or interesting than THE TRIBUNE, it is not because more money or labor is spent thereon.

All the Editions of THE TRIBUNE are printed in large Quarto form, on a sheet 31 by 42 inches, showing eight large and compact pages of reading matter. About half the Daily is devoted to Advertisements, very few of which appear in our other issues. No ten dollar daily in the world contains more reading matter than THE TRIBUNE, which is afforded at $5 per annum, or $1½ for three months.

SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE:

One copy (per annum) $3; Two do. $5; Ten do. $20.

WEEKLY TRIBUNE:

One copy (per annum) $2; Three do. $5; 8 do. $10; Twenty do. (to one address) $20.

 Payment is in all cases required in advance.

Subscriptions for THE CAMPAIGN TRIBUNE, or either of our regular issues, are respectfully solicited. All notes of specie paying banks taken at par and may be remitted at our risk. Please address

PLANEOSPHERICAL MACHINE,

FOR CRUSHING, GRINDING, AND PULVERISING.

COCHRAN'S PLANEOSPHERICAL QUARTZ CRUSHING AND PULVERIZING MACHINES, of various sizes, from 2 to 10 feet in diameter, and weighing from 500 lbs. to 10 tons each, are now in daily operation for the inspection of the public, and will be submitted to any reasonable practical tests proposed by parties interested.

These machines, by their simplicity of construction, their durability, the undoubted principles upon which they operate, their effective operation and result, are justly entitled to the consideration of all parties engaged in grinding, crushing, and pulverising, Quartz, Zinc Ore, and all other ores, or mineral substances.

It is the peculiar feature of the economy of these machines that they are found capable of crushing and pulverising into the finest powder any amount of Quartz or other earthy matter, in proportion to the amount of weight or power applied. The earthy matter is so completely ground and pulverized, that the Gold may be easily separated, and subjected to any process of amalgamation that may be necessary.

The machines work and deliver wet or dry, as may be required, and run with little friction (being almost without machinery), requiring no lubricating; the principle upon which they operate precludes the possibility of their being put out of order; nor do they heat any material while being pulverised. They are at once applicable for all purposes of grinding and pulverizing, from those required by the DRUGGIST to those of the most extensive operations in CALIFORNIA and AUSTRALIA.

The proprietors of this invention solicit examination, and will prove by practical tests the vast superiority and economy of these machines over any other, for crushing, grinding or pulverising, heretofore offered to the public.

These machines may be seen in operation at foot of South Eighth street, Williamsburgh; at the large Patent Block and Saw Factory of Messrs. Burr, Waterman & Co., First street, south of Peck Slip Ferry, every day, from 7 to 9 A. M., and from 4 to 6 P. M. For further particulars apply to Fare from Niagara Falls to Rochester, $1 30; to Syracuse, $3 35; Utica, $4 51; Albany, $6 60; Troy, 6 60; New York, (via Peoples' Line of Steamers,) $7 10; New York, (via Hudson River Railroad,) $8 10.

This Road runs in direct connection and into the same Depot with the Rochester and Albany Line, at Rochester, passing by the side of the Erie Canal, through the most beautiful and highly cultivated portion of Western New York through the village of Lockport, Medina, Albion and Brockport. It offers not only the most direct, but also the most agreeable Route yet opened for the Pleasure Travel to and from Niagara Falls.

The Road is 76 miles long from Niagara Falls to Rochester, of which over 65 miles is straight line. It is built in the most thorough manner, and equipped with entirely New Cars and Locomotives.

THE ATTENTION OF TRAVELLERS FROM THE WEST TO NEW YORK OR BOSTON, is particularly called to the fact, that by leaving Buffalo in the 9 A. M. Train for the Falls, they can pass six hours at the Falls, and leave by Express Train for Albany the same evening.

HAWKINS'
STAVE DRESSING MACHINE.
PATENTED JULY 22, 1851.

THIS machine is now in successful operation at the shop of Wm. Hawkins in this city, and will dress Staves for

Packing, Flour and Whiskey
BARRELS,

and PIPES or HOGSHEADS, at the rate of 600 Whiskey or 800 Flour Barrel Staves PER HOUR,

straight, winding or crooked. In fact, any stave that can be worked by hand will be dressed by this machine, either for tight or slack work, from 22 inches to 72 inches in length of any reasonable width, and to any requisite bilge, and in the most perfect manner. The stave passes through the machine a single time, is dressed by rotary cutters and is then ready for the truss hoops. The dressing of the sides and jointing of the edge of the stave is performed perfectly. The machine is made of iron, is strong and durable, and is not difficult to keep in good order for use. Six horse power is sufficient to drive the machine with all the speed necessary.

The Subscribers having purchased of Wm. Hawkins the patent right for the United States are prepared to sell rights for States, Counties, or for running single machines, and to furnish and set up the machines, warranted to perform perfectly. In the great saving of expense of transportation of dressed over the rough stave, the rapidity and perfect manner with which it performs its work, consists the value of this machine.

Satisfactory testimonials can be furnished if desired.

GRIST MILLS.

THE subscribers, thankful for past favors, beg leave to announce that they have recently added the [illegible] business to their former [illegible] manufacturing, and are now prepared to supply the public with articles in either branch, on terms that will defy competition.

In offering our Stoves to the community, we do so with the full assurance that we can supply better articles than can be purchased at any other place, being entirely new patterns, manufactured with care and from the very best materials. THE ECONOMIST
DOUBLE OVEN COOKING STOVE.
(Which received the First Premium at the State Fair, lately held at Janesville.)

Possesses great advantages over every other stove, for plain flues and direct application of heat, being so arranged that one or both ovens can be used at pleasure. It will cook in half the time of any other stove now in use, and with half the fuel, not consuming over four cords of wood in one year.

The TRIUMPH, single oven, takes in long wood. It is an excellent stove—one that has been well tested, and given general satisfaction.

The PREMIUM is different in its construction from any other made, in the arrangement of the [illegible]—acknowledged to be a great improvement.

The JUNO PARLOR is adapted to either wood or coal, being decidedly the neatest arrangement ever offered to the public, having all the convenience of the [illegible] combined with the beauties of the open grate. It is [illegible] ornamental, highly finished, and perfect in every [illegible]—the entire front above and below the grate being [illegible] closed with three doors, and so arranged that when open they are completely out of sight. It is equally adapted to offices as well as parlors.

The RADIATOR is the best coal stove ever put up as a retainer of heat.

Persons purchasing their stoves of us in the event of any of the plates getting broken, can [illegible] with extra ones, thus superseding the necessity of throwing away stoves, which many are daily compelled to do in buying Eastern ware.

Those who are in want of an article [illegible] will find it to their advantage to give us a call, before purchasing elsewhere, as we are confident that we can give satisfaction in all cases. City references given, where our stoves can be seen in operation. Stoves delivered and set up in any part of the city, free of charge. All orders promptly attended to.

IMPORTANT TO THE PUBLIC!

THE following advertisement was published in May, 1849, in the "Boston Daily Times," and various other newspapers in the United States, by James G. Wilson, Esq., the owner of the "Woodworth Patent," shortly after I had advertised my "PATENT STATIONARY CUTTER, PLANING, TONGUEING, AND GROOVING MACHINE," throughout the United States:

"PLANING MACHINES.

"I take this method of answering the frequent inquiries, by letter and otherwise, as to my opinion upon the various notices through the papers of the stationary Knife Planing Machines attempted to be palmed off upon several persons ignorant of their true worth. I would state for the information of the enquirers that they will find substantially the machine now offered by several pretending inventors, described in the 11th volume of the Repertory of Arts, invented by Samuel Bentham, in the year 1791. A like machine was patented in this country by one Kurley, some sixteen years since, and another one put up by Albert Richards, of West Troy, N. Y., and abandoned about the same time. It ought to satisfy the public to know that after fully eight years experimenting upon these machines, not one in use is of any value for the purpose contemplated.

I will furnish a Stationary Knife Machine equal to any now in use, or to any offered by the pretending inventors, at the cost of the machine and five per cent for my trouble.

JAMES G. WILSON,
May 19, 1849. Philadelphia."

I deny that any person ever saw or heard of such a machine as mine until I invented the same. Said machine was operated in the month of August, 1845, and no machine before this could do so much work, and do it as well as mine. In reply to the above advertisement, and in order that the public may be assured that I mean what I say, I will offer to pledge ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS against an equal amount from said Wilson, that ONE of my machines will plane, or plane, tongue and groove with less power, as much lumber in the same time, and do it as well, or better than TWO of the "Woodworth" machines. The trial to be made at my Steam Mill, Border St., East Boston, Mass., or at such other place as may be agreed upon for such a trial.

THE HUMAN FRAME

Is the most perfect masterpiece of mechanism in the universe. Every artery, muscle, ligament and bone, exhibits in its formation the wisdom of the Deity. Every joint and sinew works harmoniously with each other, and upon the natural performance of every function depends the healthful action of the whole.

PAIN

Disorganizes the whole system. It prostrates the nerves, it relaxes the muscles, it weakens the joints, it interferes with the functions of every organ, it checks the free and healthy circulation of the blood, it paralizes the absorbents, and renders them unable to take up and replete the wasted form with sound material. From the very moment that this beautiful masterpiece of God becomes afflicted with pain, the influence is experienced throughout the whole system, no matter in what particular locality the pain may originate; whether in the Head, the Feet, the Back, the Knee Joints, the Elbows, the Teeth, the Gums, or the Stomach; whether it arises from internal derangement, or is the result of external injuries, still the pain exercises its influence throughout every portion of the human system.—Not a nerve or a muscle escapes its prostrating influence.

INSTANT RELIEF FROM PAIN

Is the great desideratum of every individual who suffers its tortures, no matter how light or severe its paroxysms may be. No one can feel happy while suffering its torments.

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF

In a few seconds

WILL STOP THE MOST DISTRESSING PAINS.

Its effects are like electricity; it arrests the most distressing pains in a few seconds, its soothing, neutralizing and healthful influences thrill through every minute cell, membrane, and establishes the secretion of every gland in the system, subduing the most excruciating paroxysm of pain, and imparting strength and vitality to every organ.

NEURALGIA.

PAIN STOPPED INSTANTLY.

Radway's Ready Relief possesses an almost miraculous influence over the sharp darting pangs of pain of this cruel complaint. In a few minutes the pain-stricken sufferer experiences the delightful sensations of departing pain. It has cured thousands of cases in the city of New York, where many of them had been brought almost to death's door. The effects of the Ready Relief is to stop the pain immediately, to strengthen the nervous system, and supply the nerves with nervous energy and vitality, the loss of which is the chief cause of nervous pains.

DANGEROUS PRACTICE.

The use of Morphine, Strychnine, Aconitine, Belladonna, Arnica, and other poisons are not only dangerous but cruel. The effect of these poisons is not to cure the disease, or to remove from the system the pains, but to deaden the nerves, to weaken and stop the nervous energy, to paralyze the functions of the nervous system, and to destroy sensation. If this practice is continued for any length of time, the patient will not only waste away, but the brain will become paralyzed, and the intellect destroyed.

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF

IS FREE FROM MORPHINE,

And all other dangerous and narcotic influence. To the weak and paralyzed nervous system it imparts life instead of death, and the pain is stopped by the healthy influence which Radway's Ready Relief imparts to the nerves, instead of the [illegible], sleepy and paralyzing effect which Morphine, and all other preparations containing this poison, produces on the system.

SICK HEADACHE.

Radway's Ready Relief will stop the most distressing pains in a few minutes, and prevent renewed attacks. It will cleanse and sweeten the stomach, and neutralize the poisonous acids of the system.

ALL BOWEL COMPLAINTS,

Diarrhoea, Dysentery,
Bloody Flux, Cholera Morbus,
Painful Discharges,

It relieves the most severe pains in a few minutes—checks the most distressing discharges, and

SPEEDILY REMOVES THE CAUSE.

RHEUMATISM.

PAINS RELIEVED IN FIVE MINUTES.

Radway's Ready Relief will stop the severe and excruciating pains of Rheumatism almost instantly. Persons are living in this city who, for months, were confined to their beds by Rheumatic pains, whose bones were unsound from top to toe, whose joints were distorted with painful swellings, that were relieved from all pain in 15 minutes by the use of Radway's Ready Relief. This is truth, and thousands in the city of New York, and hundreds of thousands in the United States, can answer for the truth of this assertion—we need no certificates of Cures—we publish no long list of names to prove the efficacy of Radway's Ready Relief, for the Citizens of almost every town in the Union, for the last four years, have tested it for themselves.

CHILL FEVER.

CHILLS STOPPED IN A FEW MINUTES—PAIN RELIEVED INSTANTLY.

Radway's Ready Relief acts like a charm in all cases of Chills and Fever. It breaks the chills immediately—warms up and invigorates with health and strength every organ and secretion of the system.

PAINS OF ALL KINDS.

Whenever you feel pain, apply Radway's Ready Relief—it is sure to relieve you in a few minutes. If you have pains in the Stomach, Intestines, in the Liver, Kidneys, Bowels, Joints, Bones, Radway's Ready Relief, taken either internally or applied externally, will in a few minutes stop pain and quickly remove its cause.

BEAUTY.

Complexion richly tinted with the bloom of health,
With skin as pure and fair as Parian marble,—
Soft and sweet as the fragrant rose—
Teeth as sound and white as alabaster,
Breath of sweetest fragrance, and lips of coral tint,
With flowing ringlets and glossy locks,
Luxuriant tresses dancing gracefully o'er the swan like neck
No dark repulsive spots to mar the pleasing picture,
Or to cast dull shadows o'er beauty's master piece.

RADWAYS MEDICATED SOAP.

Composed of the most delicious, rare and fragrant gums,
Of extracts, oils, and costly essences—
Of flowers, roots, trees, and oriental plants,
Possessing wondrous virtues o'er skin diseases.

TO THE COMPLEXION IT IMPARTS BEAUTY.

By cleansing the skin from all eruptive matter,
Makes clean the pores, gives action to the capillaries,
By which all poisonous humors are ejected,—
And a healthy action to the skin restored,
To the teeth it gives whiteness and prevents decay,
It makes the skin soft, sweet and smooth,
Transforms the most repulsive and disfigured visage,—
To a clear and beautiful complexion.

RADWAY'S CIRCASSIAN BALM.

Imparts nutriment to the hair,—
Makes it strong, glossy, rich and luxuriant,
Cleanses the scalp from dandruff,—gives action to the bulbs,
Fastens the hair upon the scalp, and forces it to grow—
Like guano to a barren soil, it makes it rich and productive,—
To dress the hair, make it smooth and glossy,—
Strong and beautiful, &c.

Radway's Circassian Balm is the "ne plus ultra."

We would respectfully call the attention of our many friends, and the public generally, to an instrument we have recently imported from Paris, called a from which the above cut was taken. By it we can take the exact shape, and unerringly fit the most irregular heads. Many can testify to the inconvenience, and annoyance, and actual pain they are subjected to, in breaking in Hats that will not fit them. By this ingenious contrivance, this very great annoyance is done away; as the Hats are made to fit perfectly the first time.

"Conformateur,"

Another great advantage is, by keeping a copy of the impression, we can at all times fit our customers from all parts of the country.

We invite all who desire a perfect fit in a Hat, to call and leave an impression of their head; and all those who take pleasure in witnessing the inventions of the ingenious, to call and see the operations of this curious instrument.

Having adopted the CASH SYSTEM (which all will readily acknowledge to be the best,) we are enabled to sell the best Silk Hat made, at the extreme low price of $125; surpassing any $5 Hat sold in this city. Our Hats are all manufactured by ourselves, and in offering them to our customers, we do so, with the confident assurance, they are all we recommend them to be. We invite all who do not wish to pay two profits upon a Hat, and are willing to save 25 per cent, to call and see us.

HOOFLAND'S CELEBRATED GERMAN

BITTERS,

Prepared by Doct. C. M. Jackson,

AT THE GERMAN MEDICINE STORE,

120 Arch-st., Philadelphia.

Their power over the above diseases is not excelled, if equalled, by any other preparation in the United States, as the cures attest, in many cases after skillful physicians had failed.

These Bitters are worthy the attention of invalids. Possessing great virtues in the rectification of diseases of the Liver and lesser glands, exercising the most searching powers in weakness and affections of the digestive organs, they are withal safe, certain and pleasant.

READ AND BE CONVINCED.

[From the Boston Bee.]

The Editor said, Dec. 22d: "Dr. Hoofland's celebrated German Bitters, for the cure of Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, is deservedly one of the most popular medicines of the day. These Bitters have been used by thousands, and a friend at our elbow says he has himself received an effectual and permanent cure of Liver Complaint from the use of this remedy. We are convinced that, in the use of these Bitters, the patient constantly gains strength and vigor, a fact worthy of great consideration. They are pleasant in taste and smell, and can be used by persons with the most delicate stomachs with safety, under any circumstances. We are speaking from experience, and to the afflicted we advise their use."

SCOTT'S WEEKLY.

One of the best literary papers published, said, August 25: "Dr. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS, manufactured by Dr. Jackson, are now recommended by some of the most prominent members of the faculty, as an article of much efficacy in cases of female weakness. As such is the case, we would advise all mothers to obtain a bottle, and thus save themselves much sickness. Persons of debilitated constitution will find these Bitters advantageous to health, as we know from experience the salutary effect they have upon weak systems."

The Daily Sun says:—"It is one of the best medicines of the age for Jaundice and Liver Complaint."

Neal's Gazette says:—"Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters we know to be an excellent article, fulfilling in every respect what is claimed for it by the advertiser."

The Evening Bulletin says:—"The celebrated German Bitters are said to be an invaluable remedy for Jaundice, Dyspepsia, and Nervous Complaints."

The Daily News, July 23, says:—"A Medicine"—We speak knowingly of Dr. Hoofland's celebrated German Bitters, when we say it is a blessing of this age, and in diseases of the biliary, digestive and nervous systems, it has not, we think, an equal. It is a vegetable preparation, and made without alcohol, and to all invalids we should recommend it as worthy of their confidence."

The Dispatch says:—"As a medicine for Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Nervous Debility, and Dyspepsia, it has been found invaluable, effecting cures, and thoroughly eradicating disease, when all other medicines have failed."

That this medicine will cure Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, no one can doubt, after using it as directed. It acts specifically upon the stomach and liver—it is preferable to calomel in all bilious diseases—the effect is immediate. They can be administered to Females or Infants with safety and reliable benefit, at any time.

A Word of Caution to the Public!

Dealers in Pain Killer are cautioned against buying or selling a spurious article of Pain Killer, manufactured by White & Co., of Buffalo, which is a worthless imitation and the pamphlets a "BASE FORGERY" which will appear by comparing them with the Genuine. "The certificates are copied verbatim." The proprietor of the Genuine Perry Davis' Pain Killer will prosecute any person, engaged in selling this spurious article, and is determined to protect himself and the public from this "infamous fraud."
